

OPEN LECTURE

Title: Educational Situation of Refugee Youth and Children - In Kakuma Refugee Camp in Kenya

Time: Dec.21(Wed.) 12:00-13:30

Venue: Meeting room 1

Speaker: Seiji UTSUMI, Ph.D.

- Professor, Kyoto Women's University, School of Teacher's Training
- Professor, Kyoto University of Education Kyoto, Japan
- Professor Emeritus, Osaka University, Osaka, Japan
- International Cooperation Adviser, Ministry of Education(MEXT), Japan
- Development Specialist, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Outline of talk

There are some youths and children defecting from Southern Sudan to Kakuma Camp in Kenya for education. In this lecture, the speaker will introduce the educational situations of the camp based on his research in 2015. Educational issues such as averaged students, low enrollment rate, and the cause of the gender gap will be the main contents of the talk.