

Agricultural Research and Extension in ETHIOPIA

- Time: 14 Feb. (Mon), 2011 16:00-18:00
- Venue: Reception Room (1st Floor, GSID)
- Co-Organizers: Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University

Center for African Area Studies, Kyoto University

■ Program

16:00-16:20

“Introduction of Postgraduate Education on Rural and Regional Development at GSID” by Prof. Koichi Usami

16:20-16:40

Brief Introductions of Students’ Research on Ethiopian Rural Development at GSID

“Farm household seed management, improved seed use and seed system in the central valley” by Bedru B

“Role of Organization and Institution of Afro-biodiversity Management for Rural Development” by Fukuda S.

“Challenges for Agricultural Technical and Vocational Education and Training(ATVET) College in Ethiopia - A Focus on Basic Science and Supportive Courses Programme – “ by Shimazu Y

16:40-17:40

Key Note Speech

“Agricultural Research in Ethiopia: Approach, achievements and challenge.” by Dr. Adefris Teklewold Chere, Director of Crop Research, Ethiopian Institute of Agricultural Research

Followed by Comments by Prof. Masayoshi Shigeta , Director, Center for African Area Studies, Kyoto Univ.
and Prof. Daigo Makihara, ICCAE, Nagoya Univ. (tentative)

17:40-18:00 General Discussion

(Moderator: Prof. Yoshiaki Nishikawa. GSID)