

International Workshop East Asian Migrant Communities : History and the Present

Date: July 23rd, 2010 13 : 00 ~ 18 : 00

Venue : Nagoya University Graduate School of International Development, Multi-Purpose Auditorium, 8th Floor

13 : 00~13 : 10 Introduction

13 : 10~14 : 00 Wayne Patterson (University of California-Berkeley)
Korean Immigration to the United States, 1902-1905: A New Look at American and Japanese Policy toward Late Choson Korea.

14 : 00~14 : 50 Wen Yuiushi (Nagoya University) Migration of the Chinese Koreans to the ROK and the Formation of the Chinese Korean Community

14 : 50~15 : 00 Break

15 : 00~15:50 Petr Podalko (Aoyama Gakuin University) Still "Yellow", but not "The Peril" - Asian Businessmen in the Russian Far East in the Late 19 – Early 20th Century.

15 : 50~16 : 40 Igor Saveliev (Nagoya University) Japanese Communities in the Formation of a Regional Identity in the Russia's Priamur Region and British Columbia in the Late 19th – Early 20th Century: A Comparative Perspective

16 : 40~17 : 00 Break

17 : 00~18 : 00 Concluding Discussion

18 : 30~ Reception

If you would like to participate in the reception, please contact Igor Saveliev saveliev@gSid.nagoya-u.ac.jp before July 9th.