Background

By the end of 20th century, many Asian countries tried to follow the successful of Japan's economy and had growth like Western countries, however they fell down of the financial crisis. The capability and capacity of countries in this region were remarkable, and it is not impossible for them to be more developed if they could be more cooperative among them for the development in every sectors.

Harmony in music terminology means the movement from one pitch simultaneously to another, and the structural principles that govern such progressions. The Committee would like to bring participants to discuss, to have analytical thinking of cooperation and the development within Asian countries.

GSID is one of the departments in Nagoya University that has representatives from almost all Asian countries. Both the scholars and the academics with unique and various developmental backgrounds, thus the Study Camp would be ideally identify and foresee the roles of GSID as actor of development in the future of Asia.
