

Program	GSID Study Camp 2008
Theme	Present Food Crisis
Background
1. Economic Aspect	1. Energy price increase. 2. Trade-offs 3. Small-scale farmers' response from low income countries
2. Food Aid Aspect	1. Supporting New Green Revolution (particularly in African countries) 2. Prospects of Food Aid 3. Response from International Organizations
3. Global Governance Policy Aspect	1. Subsidies given by High Income Countries (US, EU etc) & Subsidies given by Low Income Countries 2. Commitment by G8 group to curb the food crisis
4. Human Rights Aspect (State's Obligation)	1. The obligation to respect existing access to adequate food 2. The obligation to protect the rights of the individuals of their access to adequate food 3. The obligation to fulfill (facilitate) people's access to and utilization of resources and means to ensure their livelihood
Place	GSID, Presentation Room, 1 st Floor* (under confirmation)
Time	July 26, 2008
Advisor	Prof Kimura
Co-advisor	Prof. Shinkai
Budget	Voluntary based* (from Profs ?)
Committee	Yudha, Teppei, Mandar Kulkarni
Participants	GSID Students (max 20 people)
Lecturers	Profs & Students
Proposed Program Schedule	08.00–09.00 : Preparation	09.00 – 09.30 : Opening & Ice-break	09.30 – 09.50 : Lecture I by Professor Kimura

09.50– 10.30 : Q & A session, Group Discussion	10.40 – 11. 00 :Lecture II by Professor Shinkai	11.00 – 11.40 : Q & A session, Group Discussion	11.40– 12.30 : Lunch Break
12.30 – 12.50 : Presentation I by Yudha	12.50-13.30: Q & A session, Group Discussion	13.30 – 13.50 : Presentation II by Teppei	13.50—14.30 : Q & A session, Group Discussion
14.30 – 14.50 : Break	14.50 – 15.10: Presentation III by Mandar	15.10 – 15.50 : Q & A session, Group Discussion	15.50 – 16.00 : Closing comments
Output	- Findings from the Study Camp		