

Equity in Education in Global Context

Date: Nov. 3, 2017, 17:15 – 19:00

Venue: Auditorium, 8th floor, Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University

After decades of concerted effort by the international community, now the majority of school-aged children have a chance to participate in primary and secondary education. However, there still remains the challenges to enable satisfactory learning outcomes. The panelists are going to discuss the means to achieve such learning processes and outcomes for all learners regardless of their geography, gender, socio-economic background, disability status and so on.

Panelists and Presentations:

Moderator: Shoko Yamada

Dr. Aaron Benavot

Professor, School of Education, State University of New York at Albany; former director of the Global Education Monitoring Report

“Will a global learning metric improve equity in Education?”

Dr. Samsideth Dy

Deputy Director-General for Education and Head of the Secretariat of the Education Research Council, Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports, Cambodia

“Placing Equity in Education at the Center of Teacher Education Reform in Cambodia”

Dr. Jialing Han

Professor of Sociology Institute, Beijing Academy of Social Sciences, China

“Education of Migrant Children in China”