

Special Lectures: International educational cooperation by a multi-lateral organization---UNESCO in the field of education

Lecturer: Prof. Akihiro Chiba

Advisor for Institute for Educational Research and Service, International Christian University.

The first Japanese staff involved in education development and cooperation is going to share his more than 30 years experiences in UNESCO both at headquarter and in the field offices.

Schedule:

- June 17 (Wed) 12:00-13:00 @Meeting room #1 (GSID 8th floor)
- What is international cooperation in education?

- June 18 (Thu) 14:45-16:15 @Meeting room #1
- Basics to understand UNESCO

- June 19 (Fri) 12:00-13:00 @Meeting room #1
- The beginning of UNESCO's golden time (1946-) (The Beginning of the era of development, independence of former colonies and their membership in the UN organizations

- July 1 (Wed) 12:00-13:00 @Meeting room #1
- The beginning of UNESCO's golden time (cont.)

- July 2 (Thu) 14:45-16:15 @Meeting room #1
- Changes of the concept of development in UNESCO

- July 3 (Fri) 12:00-13:00 @Meeting room #1
- Literacy, non-formal education, and life-long learning