

Open Seminar on China-Africa Education Cooperation given by Dr. Niu

Dr. Niu Changsong

Associate Professor, Institute of African Studies, Zhejiang Normal University, China

Dr. Niu holds a Ph.D. in comparative education from Zhejiang University. Her research interests focus on South African Higher Education, educational aid to Africa, China-Africa educational cooperation, African education and social development. She is the co-author of the book South African Higher Education. She has been to Cameroon, Kenya, Tanzania and other African countries to do a lot of field work. During October 2011- December, she is a visiting scholar at University of Zimbabwe. Currently, Dr. Niu is a visiting professor at Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University.

Title: China-Africa Education Cooperation under the Framework of FOCAC

Date & Time: 17:00-18:30, March 27 (Tuesday), 2012

Venue: Meeting room #1 (GSID 8F)

<http://www.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/global/general/map-en.html>

Language: English

Brief description of the lecture

In her presentation, she will talk about the issue of China-Africa education cooperation. This problem should be explained and understood in the process of China-Africa cooperation and under the framework of FOCAC (Forum on China-Africa Cooperation). China and African countries are developing countries. China-Africa education cooperation observes the principles of noninterference, mutual respect, win-win cooperation, common development. Compared to tradition donors, China's educational assistance to Africa presents some different features.

For further inquiry, please contact Shoko Yamada (syamada@gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp)