

International Symposium

Critical Perspectives on Education and Skills in the Emerging Post-2015 Development Agenda

Organized by Japan Society for International Development- Tokai
and

Graduate School of International Development,
Nagoya University

Date: 18:00 – 20:00, 26 Jan. 2015

Venue: Auditorium, 8F, Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University, Japan

(<http://www.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/global/general/map.pdf>)

Brief Description of the Seminar:

The Symposium will provide an opportunity, at the beginning of 2015, to look critically at the issues that have concerned four eminent speakers about the emerging post-2015 development agenda in general, and, in particular, its education and skills' dimensions. They will reflect on this significant debate from their differing professional perspectives.

Presenters:

<Japan> YOSHIDA, Kazuhiro (Hiroshima Univ.)

<Korea> CHUNG, Bong-Gun (Seoul National Univ.)

<China> HUANG, Meibo (Xiamen Univ.)

<Comparative Perspective> BURNETT, Nicholas (Results for Development and Visiting Scholar at Hiroshima Univ.)

Moderator:

KING, Kenneth (University of Edinburgh and Visiting Scholar at Nagoya Univ.)

Discussant:

YAMADA, Shoko (Nagoya Univ.)